

Magellan Health Provides Free Counseling Services to Individuals Impacted by Events in Minnesota

May 31, 2020

Callers will speak directly to a certified licensed mental health clinician

PHOENIX--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 31, 2020-- Magellan Health, Inc. (NASDAQ: MGLN), today announced that it will open a free 24-hour crisis line for anyone who needs help during these tumultuous times. The situation with COVID-19, in addition to the unrest in communities across the country, has sparked an unprecedented level of stress for many individuals.

Magellan is available to help as individuals who call the hotline will speak directly to a masters-level, certified licensed mental health clinician. The hotline is being operated by Magellan Healthcare, the behavioral and specialty healthcare segment of the company.

The toll-free number to access free, confidential counseling services is 1-800-327-7451 (TTY 711).

Magellan's confidential mental health crisis line is offered free-of-charge to the community to assist individuals as they try to cope with feelings of fear, sadness, anger and hopelessness related to these difficult times. Crisis line callers may also seek information and guidance to other available resources, such as community-based support.

Tip sheets with resources specific to trauma and steps towards recovery can be found on Magellan Health's website here.
