Magellan Health Services Completes Acquisition of ICORE Healthcare, LLC

AVON, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--July 31, 2006--Magellan Health Services, Inc. (Nasdaq:MGLN) today announced that it has completed its acquisition of ICORE Healthcare, LLC, a privately held specialty pharmaceutical management firm. The Company paid a base price of $210 million in cash and restricted stock for ICORE, which becomes a wholly owned subsidiary of Magellan. The terms of the companies’ agreement also include potential earn-out payments totaling $75 million, based on achieving certain earnings targets in 2007 and 2008.

Steven J. Shulman, chairman and chief executive officer of Magellan, said, "Our acquisition of ICORE marks our entry into the fast-growing specialty pharmaceutical arena and our third health care management line of business. With ICORE's proven team and comprehensive, successful and differentiated business model, our shared commitment to clinical excellence, and Magellan's strengths in information technology and operations, we expect to further develop ICORE's capabilities and product offerings for purchasers and the members they serve."

"With capabilities in behavioral health, radiology benefits management and now specialty pharmaceuticals, along with our financial and technical resources, track record of excellent service and management skill in specialty health care, Magellan is well-positioned to leverage customer relationships across our three lines of business in support of the our strategic objectives," Shulman noted.

Specially pharmaceuticals are high-cost drugs used to treat chronic diseases. Although used by less than one percent of the patient population, these drugs represent approximately 20 percent of total drug costs. ICORE works with health plans to manage specialty drugs used in the treatment of cancer, multiple sclerosis, hemophilia, infertility, rheumatoid arthritis, chronic forms of hepatitis and other diseases. ICORE contracts with 36 health plans with members in commercial, Medicare and Medicaid programs.
